Defendants.

ORDER

This case has come before me based upon the Plaintiff's request for emergency injunctive relief. This Court finds that the Plaintiff's request for emergency relief is well documented. The Plaintiff is substantially likely to prevail on the merits of the case, the public interest weighs in favor of granting the injunction, the Plaintiff will suffer irreparable harm if the injunction is not granted, and the defendant is not likely to suffer any harm if this injunction is granted and has consented to this action. The Court, therefore, grants the following emergency injunction.

IT IS ORDERED that any registered voter in Perry County, Ohio whose assigned polling location has been moved due to flooding may cast a provisional ballot at the Perry County Board of Elections during normal voting hours on March 4, 2008.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
