The Confused Greenies

Commedia is a form of street theatre employing masks, satire, farce, slapstick, innuendo, naughtiness, and repetition to create plays from brief outline scenarios to which the actors improvise the dialogue and action. Commedia uses Stock Characters (also called Masks), exaggerated stereotypes of human nature. In this play, included characters are:

Dottore is the self-proclaimed “doctor” and “expert” on any and everything.

Colombina is the sassy companion who also turns out to be a sappy lover.

Arlecchino is the happy-go-lucky, always hungry, foolish harlequin.

Capitano is the boasting, womanizing, braggart who is truly a coward.

Flavio is the sappy and angsty lover in love with the idea of being in love.

Fiorinetta is an experienced procuress and mentor to Colombina.

Punch (aka Pulcinella) revels in all things twisted and violent.

Scapino is an adept at cunningly plotting and more cunningly escaping.

The Zanni are the generic foolish extra clowns who don't warrant a name.

Capocomico (head comic).....Jess Rudolph

Concertatore (troupe director).....Marshall Hughes

Buffono Crew: Lars Benthien, Sabah Bhat, Not Also Jeff Brodovsky,

Lauren Chaikin, Bridget Coffman, Elanor Drushel, Rich Drushel,

Extra Special Thanks to Chuck Minch and Tie-Dye Michael Hawley for being our majestic Dalek Engineering Corps!

We are wrapping up our biggest season yet but already planning for the summer with more zany fun than you can shake a slapstick including an encore performance of *Dottore Who at Marcon, Ohio's premier science-fiction & fantasy convention in Columbus over Memorial Day Weekend!
